INTIMATE TALK NO. 3

Seats are now selling rapidly for Pollyanna. Just hold them over with us until the show begins with this Pollyanna, whom we want you to know. She'll make you laugh after you see her. And she's a real talker. And this is a pretty good world—and you'll go away glad. How will she make you glad? Well, let me tell you about it. First, she started in with a single household, and then made a whole town glad. How did she do it? The play tells all that. It's a mighty interesting play—nothing "preachy" about it—and it will fascinate you about GOOD PEOPLE OF WASHINGTON. Pollyanna!

GET YOURS EARLY AND BE GLAD. DO NOT WAIT, OR YOU MAY BE TOO LATE.INCREASE IN SALARIES
OF JANITORS IS URGEDPetworth Citizens Also Take Stand Against Greater Speed for Vehicles.

Resolutions recommending a 20 per cent increase in the salaries of janitors and the employment of additional janitors in the event the Johnson committee's bill passes were referred to the executive committee of the Petworth Citizens' Association at a meeting at the Petworth M. E. Church last evening. E. W. Oyster drafted the resolutions.

The association also reiterated its former stand protesting against the location of the municipal hospital on the proposed site in the Piney Branch section. Pamphlets giving reasons for the protest were distributed to the members.

Action was taken urging the Committee not to allow a greater speed limit in Petworth than is allowed within the fire limits. This was in view of the Miller bill now pending before Congress which would allow a general increase of speed for cars. H. C. Peeler suggested that a more careful examination should be made of applicants for licenses to drive cars. The association decided not to take any stand as to what speed limit should be, but made it clear that the speed limit in Petworth should not be greater than that in the city proper.

Want All Streets Called.

A request is to be made to have the public utility commission order the car companies to have the names of streets called by the conductors. As the motion was first introduced by E. A. Kamm, a proposal was made for the calling of four streets in every mile. R. J. F. McElroy amended it to read, "every street," and this prevailed.

Jesse C. Suter, alternate to the Federation of Citizens' Associations, made a speech of support for the creation recently, saying that body had urged a speedy settlement of the car strike. Mr. Suter at another point called for the creation of a council of the Petworth School, pointing out the immediate need for an addition. He said Representative Johnson of the House District committee had acknowledged the merit of his request.

Resolutions of regret for the death of the late Horace V. Bissell, a member of the association, as presented by Raymond C. Adams, were unanimously adopted. Three applicants were admitted to membership: William W. King, F. M. Holmes, John J. Turner, Harry S. Moses and Clarence E. Miles.

Adams was told by President C. J. James that at the April meeting full consideration and vote on a proposed plan for a change in the District government would take place.

Entertainment Is Given.

Following the business meeting an entertainment was given, members families and friends filling the hall to witness it. The principal feature was a minstrel show put on by the Petworth Home Orchestra. When the identity of the members taking part was finally revealed, it was found that the leading participants—Prof. Dan Kildarevich, Miss Francesca Gutford and Senator Tomay Aywaa De Posto—were present. Other entertainers—Miss Francesca Gutford and President James Troop No. 32 of the Boy Scouts and Troop No. 6, Girl Scouts, and the Lydia Orchestra also contributed to the program.

Nature's Symphony, a talk, C. J. James, violin solo, J. N. Stevenson reading, C. H. Hanson selection, Lyric orchestra vocal solo, N. N. Stevenson reading, Jean C. Carter and his whistling duet, A. G. and W. C. Cole.

Films to Show Making of Pipes.

Three motion picture films showing the methods employed in the manufacture of pipe, from ore to the finished product, are to be shown before the American Society of Marine Engineers Friday evening, Feb. 26, at 8:30 o'clock at the American Theater. The films, taken under the direction of a tube company in Pittsburgh after eight months work cost a great expense.

SAY PRACTICE IS WIDESPREAD.

Officials Comment on Charges
Against Cigar Manufacturers.

Treasury officials declare that arrests of cigar and cigarette manufacturers in New York Monday on charges of defrauding the government of internal revenue taxes only scratched the surface of fraudulent practices which have extended from manufacturers to retailers and even consumers, all over the country.

So far the investigation has not shown just when the conspiracy began, but it is believed that it may be traced back as far as twenty-five years. Estimates of the amount defrauded are not believed now to be accurate, but some run up to $100,000. Only a small portion of the tax can be recovered, so the government intends to bring civil proceedings to get back every cent possible and to imprison such offenders as can be identified.

Under the law cigars are taxed from 12 cents to $2.00 per thousand and cigarettes from $1.25 to $3.00 per thousand. Failure to use proper revenue stamps or to use any at all give an opportunity for evasion.

It was said at the Treasury today that some cigar manufacturers in New York have failed to pay even 10 percent of the amount due the government.

Reports that the frauds had been made possible or inspired generally by government employees in collusion with conspirators were denied. In some instances, however, officials suspect collusion are under investigation.

More than ten of the alleged conspirators are said to be under surveillance, and more arrests are expected.
